Monday: Outbound travel

Departing from our local pick-up points, we commence our journey towards Norwich. We make a stop en-route at Stamford, with over 600 listed buildings made from honey – coloured limestone and many independent shops, including little shops tucked down quaint narrow passageways

Tuesday: Heading deep into the Norfolk countryside we make our way to Sandringham House & Gardens, a favourite country home of the Royal Family, where their festive celebrations are held. The fine 17th century mansion house is a trove of priceless antiques and art, while outside you can explore the formal gardens, famous park, church and station museum.

Wednesday: This morning we head into the Norfolk Broads to take a leisurely cruise aboard the Southern Comfort, a Mississippi Paddle Steamer. We cruise along the River Bure to reach Ranworth Broad, passing lovely old, thatched houses, windmills and Norfolk reed beds. Throughout the trip there is excellent commentary. This afternoon we make our way into the 'Fine City' of Norwich. which boasts two cathedrals: a Norman Cathedral with cloisters and a catholic cathedral too! Take a stroll down Elm Hill, a cobbled street with its medieval houses, explore The Lanes with superb independent shops, the colourful marketplace and the 12th century Norman Castle.

Thursday: Today we head to Blickling Hall. (National Trust/NT*) The estate was mentioned in the Domesday Book and was the birthplace of Anne Boleyn, the second queen of Henry VIII. Today this breath-taking Jacobean mansion with ancient yew hedges sits at the heart of a magnificent garden and historic park in the beautiful Bure meadows, so there is plenty to see! Next, we head to Sheringham, on the North Norfolk coast, a busy little seaside resort with a fine sandy beach and time at leisure to explore a myriad of small seaside shops! (*NT members to present their cards, non-members to pay their entry charge)

Friday: Homeward bound- We depart our hotel after breakfast and commence our journey home, making an enroute stop at Market Harborough, a quintessential English market town. Enjoy the historic surroundings and a range of boutique and independent stores.
